RESOLUTION No. 2001-121

MARION COUNTY BOARD RESOLUTION REGARDING BIDDERS ON COUNTY CONSTRUCTION PROJECTS AT A COST GREATER THAN $5,000.00

WHEREAS, the Building & Historical Committee of the Full Marion County Board recommends to the Full Marion County Board the following Resolution:

WHEREAS, it is the duty of County government to carefully and wisely spend taxpayer dollars; and

WHEREAS, it is the duty of County government to assure that construction projects (whether for construction of new facilities, renovation of existing facilities or road or bridge construction projects) are completed by qualified, responsible persons or entities which will conduct these projects in a cost-effective, safe, legally-compliant, and well-trained manner; and

WHEREAS, it is the intent of the Marion County Board that bids upon construction projects at costs greater than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) should be accepted only from responsible bidders.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Marion County Board, that bids for construction contracts (whether for construction of new facilities, renovation of existing facilities, or road or bridge construction projects) at costs greater than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) shall only be accepted by "Responsible Bidders", as such term is described below:

"Responsible Bidder" for construction contracts at costs greater than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) means a bidder who meets all of the following applicable criteria, and submits evidence of such compliance:

1. All applicable laws prerequisite to doing business in Illinois;
2. Evidence of compliance with:

- a. Federal employer Tax Identification Number or Social Security Number (for individuals); and
